

PLACE, TIME, HISTORY:

CELEBRATING INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARLY COLLABORATION AND EXCHANGE

Please join us to affirm the rich, extensive collaboration between historians affiliated with Tel Aviv University, and the University of Wisconsin–Madison

Monday, January 2, 2017, 496 Gilman Building, TAU 10:00

Welcome by
Raanan Rein,
Vice President of TAU

Naama Cohen Hanegbi (TAU), Negotiating Faith in the Medical Market of 14th Century Iberia

14:00 – 15:45

PANEL PRESENTATION:
ZIONISM BETWEEN EAST AND WEST

Hanan Harif (TAU), Yosef Yo'el Rivlin's Translation of the Qur'an and Its Place within the New Hebrew Culture

10:15 - 12:00

PANEL PRESENTATION:
REVISITING THE QUESTION OF
CHRISTIAN-JEWISH RELATIONS

Tamar Herzig (TAU), Jews, Witches and Converts in Renaissance Italy

Scott Ury (TAU), Jewish and Democratic? On the Development of Jewish Civil Society in Early Twentieth Century Warsaw

Commenting:
Jon Pollack (UW–Madison)

Tal Elmaliach (UW–Madison), The Jewish American Left and the Idea of Progressive Israel

Rona Yona (TAU), A New Perspective on Socialist Zionism: The View from Poland

Anat Stern (TAU), Contradicting Legal Traditions in Israeli Military Law: Looting Cases of IDF Soldiers in the 1948 War

Commenting:
Anna Paretskaya (UW–Madison)