CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ISSUE

Prof. Michael Keren: Head of the Andrea and Charles Bronfman Center for the Media of the Jewish People, Tel Aviv University.

Eliahu Rubinstein: Attorney-general, Government of Israel.

Dr. Mira Moshe: Lecturer and researcher in mass media, Department of Political Studies, Bar-Ilan University.

Dr. Kimmy Caplan: Department of Jewish History, Bar-Ilan University; Institute of Contemporary Judaism, Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

Prof. Don Urian: Department of Theater Arts, Tel Aviv University.

Dr. Ayelet Kohn: Head of Department of Communication, David Yellin College of Education, Jerusalem; lecturer, Department of Communication and Journalism, Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

Dr. Hillel Noesek: Senior lecturer and head of journalism and broadcast communication studies, School of Communication, College of Management - Academic Studies Program, Tel Aviv.

Dotan Blais: M.A. candidate, Department of Communication, Hebrew University of Jerusalem; lecturer, Jezreel Valley College; Internet researcher.

Dr. Yehiel Linon: Senior lecturer, Department of Communication, Tel Aviv University.

Shalom Rosenfeld: Founder and head of the Institute for Research of the Jewish Press, Tel Aviv University (until June 1997); a founder of "Ma'ariv" and its editor in chief, 1974-80.

Dr. Mordecai Naor: Author and researcher of the history of Eretz Yisrael; editor, "Keshet," the Andrea and Charles Bronfman Center for the Media of the Jewish People, Tel Aviv University.

Prof. Bruno Di Porto: Department of Modern and Contemporary History, University of Pisa, Italy; publisher and editor, the periodicals, "Il Tempo" e l’Idea.

Shlomo Sheva: Author and journalist specializing in Eretz Yisrael.